

WHAT AN INTERESTING TABLE!

ANTIQUE SQUATTERS' FAVOURITE BILLIARD TABLE, NO 789

Table No 789 is such an interesting example of this famous Australian Billiard Table model.

At an age of more than 140 years, it is a highly notable Australian historical piece.

(It's companion Squatter's Favourite Table, No 774, was situated at Victorian Parliament House, for more than a century; when it was installed, it became a subject of significant criticism. - See Daily Telegraph Newspaper article, 13 May 1872).

But Table No 789 is also outstanding because it features such dazzlingly vivid Figured Blackwood (Fiddle Back) show timbers, as the detailed Pictures below clearly demonstrate.
